Requirements for Candidate for Affiliate Member Applicants

The following are minimum requirements for Candidate for Affiliate Member status in ACF.

- 1) Be a graduate of a professional forestry or natural resource two-year associate degree-granting program recognized by the ACF Executive Committee. The Executive Committee currently uses the Society of American Foresters Accredited Degree Program in Forest Technology. The Executive Committee may recognize and accept applicants who have achieved either degrees in forestry or related fields if the degrees provide, by the determination of the Executive Committee, a sufficient education and practical experience to allow the prospective member to serve the interests of their clients.
- 2) Have at least two years of experience in practical forestry administration, forest management or other special forestry classification.
- 3) Be an individual whose principal activity is forestry consulting work to the public on a fee or contract basis.
- 4) Be an owner, partner or a significant stockholder in a forestry consulting firm or an employee of a consulting firm owned by one or more ACF members or practice in a firm enrolled in the ACF Practice Monitoring Program.
- 5) Have no economic interest in a timber purchasing or timber procurement entity wherein a potential conflict of interest may exist in serving the public.

Before applying, look for any apparent conflict between your practice and the provisions of the ACF Constitution, Bylaws and Code of Ethics.

Applicants are required to complete "The Practice of Consulting Forestry" course between acceptance as a Candidate for Affiliate Member and application for Affiliate Member status. Completion of this course no more than six months prior to application or as an Associate Member will be considered as meeting this requirement. The class is currently held at least once a year during the National Conference. A Candidate must demonstrate his or her ability to serve the public within ACF policies, objectives and rules of conduct to qualify for Affiliate Member status.

Dues

The Executive Committee sets annual dues for ACF members. Dues are payable before February 1 of each year. First year Candidate for Affiliate Member dues are pro-rated quarterly, depending on the applicant's approval date, according to the following schedule: April 1, August 1, November 1. Applicants approved after November 1 are billed for full dues for the following year. For the current dues, check the ACF website or call the national office.
